Verdict Against Cotts.

Yesterday at noon, in the circuit court, the arguments in the case of W. J. Cotts vs. Schenk, Thompson, et al, came to their close, and then the jury took a hand. After remaining in retirement for an hour the jury returned with a verdict for the defendants. The usual motion for a new trial was made, but it is not believed it will be pushed. It is thought other similar cases brought by Cotts will be abandoned.

The United States Court.

Yesterday, in the United States court, the grand jury was charged by Judge Jackson, and then entered upon the examination of witnesses preliminary to bringing indictments in a number of cases being pushed by District Attorney Gaines. While the grand jury was thus busy, Judge Jackson heard arguments in the case of Duffield, trustee, vs. Michaels et al, a famous oil case, which involves the possession of valuable oil territory in Pleasant county, this state.

GIBSON LAMB DEAD.

The Prominent Citizen and Banker Passes Away After an ILLNESS OF ONLY A WEEK.

The end Came Unexpectedly, Hopes Being Entertained of his Recovery Only a Short Time Before—The News Spread Rapidly Last Night and was Received With Regret—A Banking Career of Thirty-five Years.

Last night at 7:40 o'clock, at his home at Echo Point, east of the city, occurred the death, unexpectedly, of Mr. Gibson Lamb, president of the Bank of Wheeling, after an illness of only a week's duration, the cause being Bright's disease in an aggravated form, brought about by a severe cold. The news of the sad occurrence spread over the city rapidly and was received with universal regret. Mr. Lamb was one of the leading bankers of Wheeling, and wielded a powerful influence in the commercial community. Socially, he was of a genial disposition and enjoyed the warm friendship of many.

For some time Mr. Lamb had been desirous of taking a rest, but he found it impossible to leave his post as head of the banking institution, until a week ago, when his condition was such that he was compelled to leave, and seek at home the relief which all his business associates and friends hoped would come speedily. A severe cold which had been contracted a few days ago brought on an aggravated attack of Bright's disease, but his condition, while considered serious by his physicians, did not warrant the belief that his illness would end fatally. Even so late as last evening, an hour before the end came, neighbors had been informed that he was resting very well, and the hope was expressed that, with the assistance of a trained nurse, whose services had just been secured, the patient would soon show a decided improvement. Unhappily, there was a turn for the worse, and the end came at 7:40 p. m.

Mr. Lamb was in his sixtieth year, having been born in this city in March, 1840, the son of the late Hon. Daniel Lamb. Early in life, about thirty-five years ago, he entered the service of the Northwestern Bank of Virginia (now the National Bank of West Virginia), and in 1863 he succeeded his father as cashier of the bank. Early in 1863 he resigned to become cashier of the Bank of Wheeling. In 1866 he resigned and moved to Kansas City, where he became a partner in the brokerage and banking firm of Bayha, Lamb & Barber. He remained there only a year, and thence moved to Cincinnati, where he became a partner in the banking firm of George Eustice & Company. He stayed in Cincinnati two years, and in 1890 returned to Wheeling to become president of the Bank of Wheeling, a position that he has held since.

Mr. Lamb married Miss Katherine List, daughter of D. C. List, who, with three children, survives him. They are: Charles, connected with the bank; Bessie (Mrs. Clarke Hamilton) and Louisa.

Mr. Lamb was a member of St. Matthew's P. E. church, and for several years was a member of the vestry board.

The funeral arrangements had not been completed last night.

A GREAT SUCCESS

Is Due for To-Day's Emancipation Day Celebration.

The indications point to a very successful Emancipation Day celebration to-day by the colored people of Wheeling and surrounding towns. The weather man promises better treatment than last year, when the rain marred its success almost completely. The exercises at the state fair grounds in the afternoon will be preceded by a street parade, beginning at 10 a. m. Meister's band will furnish the music and R. N. Strange will be chief marshal.

The line of march is outlined as follows: Form on Chapline street, between Twelfth and Thirteenth; down Twelfth to Market to Tenth, to Main, to Twenty-third, to Chapline, to Twelfth, to Market, to Tenth, over the bridges to the fair ground. All the colored societies will participate, and Captain Clemans has appointed this platoon of police for the event: Lieutenant Daniel D. Ingram, Officers Allen, McGuigan, Knabe, Larkin, Myers, Woods, Ritz and Walker.

At the fair grounds there will be an attractive series of amusements and athletic events. Hon. J. E. Holmes, a Pittsburgh lawyer, will be the orator of the day, and there are likely to be a number of other addresses.

THE pain of a burn or scald is almost instantly relieved by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It also heals the injured parts more quickly than any other treatment, and without the burn is very severe does not leave a scar. For sale by druggists.
